

Bringing it Back to Jesus

Naturally Connecting Conversations to Christ

Andy Bannister
Solas

www.solas-cpc.org

But in your hearts, set apart Christ as Lord. Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have. But do this with gentleness and respect.

1 Peter 3:15-16

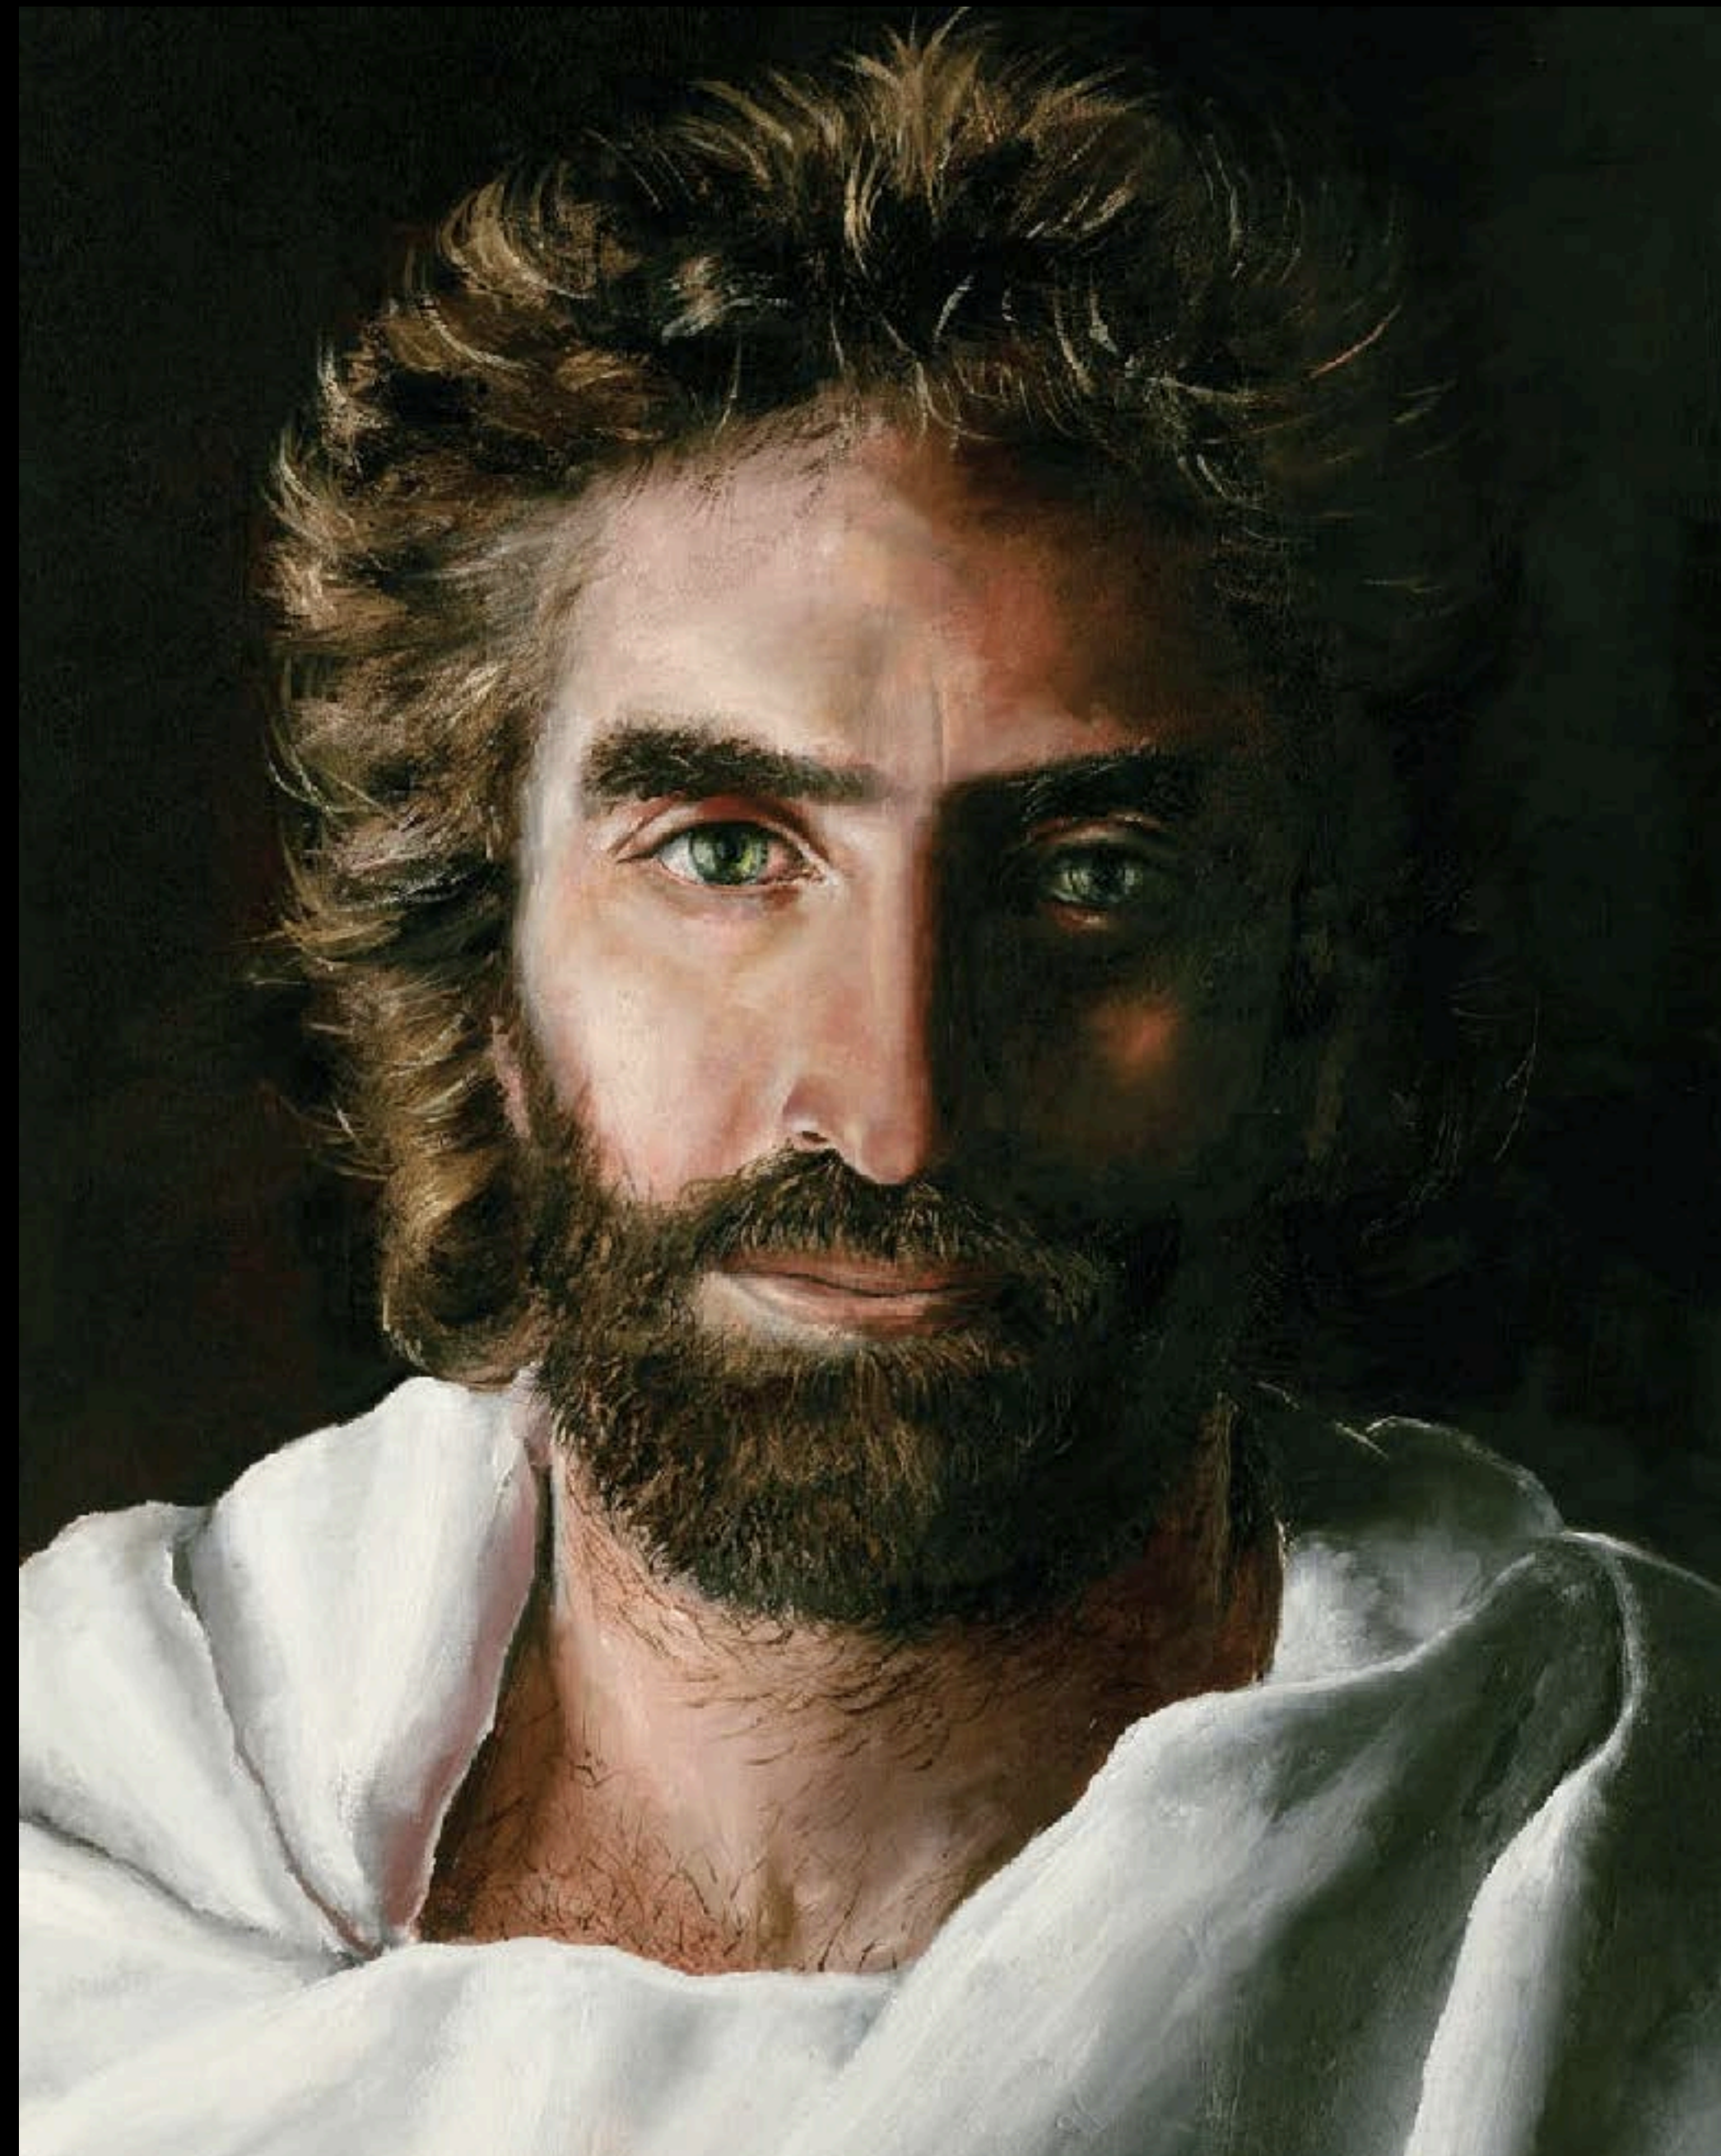

Be wise in the way you act toward outsiders; make the most of every opportunity. Let your conversation be always full of grace, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how to answer everyone.

Colossians 4:5-6

More Than Mere Religion

A group of people, including men and women in traditional head coverings, are seated around a table in a rustic setting. The scene is dimly lit, with a warm, yellowish glow. The text is overlaid in a bright yellow color.

That reminds me of something Jesus said

That reminds me of something Jesus did

That reminds me of a story that Jesus told

That reminds me of something Jesus said

That reminds me of something Jesus did

That reminds me of a story that Jesus told

That reminds me of something Jesus said

That reminds me of something Jesus did

That reminds me of a story that Jesus told

That reminds me of something Jesus said

That reminds me of something Jesus did

That reminds me of a story that Jesus told

Group Discussion

What would you say to my friend who has spent years chasing a financial dream, only to feel totally empty when he achieved it? How might you connect the conversation to Jesus?

